Juvenile Crime

Editorial - BY BRUCE BIOSSAT Almost every time new figures are printed showing increases in juvenile crime, somebody hastens to point out that most young Americans are okay.

Of course there isn't any doubt of this at all. Those who feel it necessary to re-emphasize this fact constantly are evidently convinced that the crime statistics paint too black a picture.

Perhaps they do. But it is also possible that the steady stress on the normal behavior of most U. S. youngsters tends to lull people into a mood of complacency which ill suits the seriousness of the juvenile crime problem.

The fact is that youthful crime has been on the sharp upgrade for a long time. Leading law enforcement authorities, including FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, have declared flatly that offenses committed by young persons actually defense. constitute THE major crime problem in America today.

five years ago. "We came to Carrier Mills August 2, 1952," Rev. Cronk recalled recently and added "it sure was a busy day for us. We had accepted a call to the Carrier Mills Church of the Nazarene, came to look around and find a place to live. That afternoon we read in The Daily Register that teachers were needed at the Ridgway school, Mrs. Cronk and I have our Masters degree so we drove to Ridgway, our applications for teaching positions were accepted. We moved into a new church, found a new home and accepted teaching jobs all in one day," he concluded.

Lane Dwinell of New Hampshire, Fail to Find Cause chairman of the 10-man governors' delegation, said enough research has been done by the Hoover Commission and others to lay the groundwork for some action.

Expects Some Success

"I don't think anybody is optimistic that we're going to set the world on fire," Dwinell told a reporter. "But the mere fact that this project is being undertaken makes me confident we can achieve some success.

Dwinell said he found "general agreement" among the nation's 48 governors that it was "desirable" for some federal programs to be shifted to the states.

Hart-Akins Bout Tonight

CLEVELAND UP-Upstart Garnett (Sugar) Hart has "both hands primed" to detour the bombshell punches of veteran Virgil Akins when their scheduled 10-round tele vision welterweight battle gets un derway at Public Hall tonight. Hart, a 20-year-old Philadelphia slugger who is bidding for a se cure spot in the top 10 with a record of 22 wins in 24 bouts, will face the crossroads of his short but brilliant career against the powerful Akins. "I can do just as well with ei ther hand," Akins warned his 29 year-old St. Louis opponent. Not even the odds-makers argued that point, making Hart an 8-5 favorite on his argument that 19 knockouts in 24 fights is bigtime calibre.

Akins' 10 years of boxing with more seasoned opponents tells a different story. His record of 23 kayoes in 42 bouts has won him the division's No. 3 position and the title of "bombshell" puncher.

NUMBER ONE IN CROSS-COUNTRY ECONOMY TEST -CHEVROLET!

Drive the car that recorded up to 17% greater fuel savings in a conclusive transcontinental economy test of the three leading low-priced cars-sanctioned and certified by NATA.* The run was all the way from Los Angeles to New York.

Here's the car that gets not only frisky performance out of a gallon of gas but money-saving mileage as well. It's all in the NATA record book-how Chevrolet rolled in with the lowest total operating cost after 2,873 miles of thorough testing! It just goes to prove that Chevy offers more of the important things that make for happier driving. Remarkable pep and handling ease; that kind of road-holding ability usually associated with sports cars; and, to round it off nicely, outstanding economy.
